JUDGE MOORE ENTERS TWENTY FAMOUS HORSES

National Show Promises to Be Greatest Open Air Meet in

Judge Moore has officiated as judge at Roustabout, from Louis Leith of Mid- gun yesterday. dleburg. Va., just after the horse won the high jump at the local meet, and presented the animal to the United States government.

Judge Moore is one of the directors of Greatest Open-Air Meet.

Officials of the Washington show to day stated that the entry list this year would mean that the Washington show would now be recognized as the greatest open-air meet in the world.

The Moore entries will be in charge of Trainer George Chipchase. Twenty box stalls have been reserved. Among some of the more famous entrants are Roderick Dhu, Whitewall Ariel, Burgomaster, Via Frye, Miss Malbro, Bountiful, Reabun, Mogal and Marcel. These horses will compete in the heavy harness classes with the pick of the stables of Alfred Vanderbilt of New York, William Lieber of Bryn Mawr, Pa.: A. W. Atkinson of Merchantsville, N. J., Miss Ella F. Ivers of New Bedford, Mass.; Fred Pabst of Milwaukee, Walter Hanley of Providence, R. L., and John L. Bushnell of Springfield, Ill.

The horses of E. T. Stotesbury, millionaire owner of Philadelphia, are entered in the light harness classes and, therefore, will not be matched against the Moore entries.

Entries Close Tonight.

The entry list closes tonight at 12 o'clock. It will be several days before the list can be classified, but there is every indication that the number of entries will reach 1,000.

POINTS HELD ESSENTIAL IN COMING FISCAL QUERY

Southwest Citizens Designate Three Important Factors in Determining D. C. and U. S. Relationship.

Three points are essential to a prope determination of the relationship be tween the District of Columbia and the federal government, according to belief expressed by members of the Southeast Washington Citizens' Association in adopting resolutions at a meeting at 314 Pennsylvania avenue southeast last evening. The association decided to undertake a campaign for funds for the aid of the committee of the Federation of Citizens' Associations which is to aid in presenting facts to the joint select committee of Congress appointed to investigate the fiscal relations between the District of Columbia and the national government.

The three points brought out in the resolution were:

"I. That property in the District of Columbia should be assessed at a fair valuation and at a reasonable rate of taxation. That valuation and taxation rates should be reasonably constant in order that property owners may not be subjected to unusual and unexpected

"2. That the agencies of government, such as the fire department, the police force and the public schools, should be supported jointly by the District of Columbia and the federal government.

"3. That those government functions which are chiefly national should be financed by the federal government."

Capt. William Luckett presided at the meeting in the absence of the presimeeting in the absence of the presi-dent, A. G. Herrmann. The resolutions were adopted with only a brief discus-

Bureau of Standards Discusses Renewals by Electric Companies.

Practice of some electric lighting in making renewals of lamps with those of the carbon type has the tendency to encourage the use of inefficient means of electric lighting, according to the bureau of standards, which has been making a study of standards of electric service. There is scarcely any place now where these carbon lights can be used to advanage, it is declared.

One of the most important element of good lighting service is the use of sultable lamps. In recent years, according to a circular of the bureau, tungsten lamps have been so much im proved in efficiency and durability that they are now used much more generality than are carbon or metalized carbon filament lamps. Some years ago when tungsten lamps were relatively new they were very fragile and had relatively short life, and also were much more expensive than carbon lamps, and lighting companies which gave free renewals with carbon lamps could not afford to do so with tungsten lamps. In recent years, however, tungsten lamps have been so much improved and the selling price so much reduced that the cost of lamp renewals on the average is less with tungsten lamps than with carbon. This is due to the fact that the life of the tungsten lamps is more than double that of the others. proved in efficiency and durability that
